

WEEK TWO RESOURCES

SOURCE	LINK	NOTES ON RESOURCES
Dignified Storytelling handbook (2022)	https://dignifiedstorytelling.com/handbook/ (See Principle 4 'Consent is more than paperwork' pages 38 - 44)	Includes guidance on treating consent as a process, obtaining consent as a group and template Contributor Feedback Form Template, Consent Form Template
Oxfam (2020) Ethical Content Guidelines: Upholding the Rights of the People in the Pictures	https://policy-practice.oxfam.org/resources/ethical-content-guidelines-upholding-the-rights-of-the-people-in-the-pictures-i-620935/	These guidelines cover the gathering of content, the management of content, and the use of content by Oxfam for its public engagement work. The main purpose of these guidelines is to ensure that content is gathered, managed and used ethically, in ways that uphold contributors' rights to participate and be heard, to experience respect and dignity, to make free and informed decisions, and to be protected from risk and harm.
Bond (2019) Putting the people in the pictures first: Ethical guidelines for the collection and use of content (images and stories)	https://www.bond.org.uk/sites/default/files/resource-documents/bond-ethical-guidelines-for-collection-and-use-of-content.pdf	See: Section 4 on Informed Consent
'Our Silenced Voices: What we lose while working with international humanitarian organizations'	https://www.7iber.com/society/our-silenced-voices-what-we-lose-while-working-with-international-humanitarian-organizations	Thought Piece
PhotoEthics Informed Consent and How to Fix it	https://www.photoethics.org/content/2019/6/11/informed-consent	An interesting blog that explores the challenges of informed consent specifically in development settings

Save the Children	https://www.savethechildren.org.ph/__resources/webdata/file/downloadables/179_Consent_form_2019.pdf	A good example of a thorough informed consent form
Water Aid	https://washmatters.wateraid.org/blog/informed-consent-why-conversations-are-crucial	Also, check out their full Ethical Imagery Policy!