

WEEK 3 RESOURCES

SOURCE	LINK	NOTES ON RESOURCES
Africa No Filter: Ethical Storytelling Handbook	Ethical Storytelling Handbook - Africa No Filter	A fantastic guide that covers all areas of story telling
BOND: Taking British politics and colonialism out of our language	https://www.bond.org.uk/resources/taking-british-politics-and-colonialism-out-of-our-language	A useful resource to help you identify any problematic language you are using and supports to seek alternatives
International Development Alliance Scotland	https://www.intdevalliance.scot/resources/reflecting-language-international-development-scotland-discussion-paper-version-2
Chance for Childhood: Blog Post	https://chanceforchildhood.org/latest-news/choosing-our-words-ensuring-that-children-have-the-right-to-decide-how-their-story-is-told/	A reflection on our journey of language use
Vision Not Victim Webpage	https://www.visionnotvictim.org/	The VNV process supports girls in envisioning the futures they want, sharing those visions through collaborative media, and building the skills they need to pursue their aspirations
Radi-Aid: Research on Visual Communication	https://static1.squarespace.com/static/52720d41e4b024943bdf6241/t/5c0930151ae6cf17b15fc46e/1544106023462/RADIAIDRESEARCH.pdf

Radi-Aid: Social Media Guide	https://www.radiaid.com/social-media-guide	Whilst this is focused on volunteers – it has some good take aways for organisations too.
Matt Kerman	https://jpia.princeton.edu/news/do-what-i-say-not-what-i-do-decolonizing-language-international-development	Thought piece